ALL INDIA WOMEN'S EDUCATION FUND ASSOCIATION (AIWEFA)
Estd.1929
"NGO in Special Consultative Status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) of the United Nations"

Dated: 3.04.2017

Dear Friend,

The All India Women's Education Fund Association (AIWEFA), established in 1929, is one India's pioneering NGOs with 87 years of service and commitment to the community, including the founding of the prestigious Lady Irwin College affiliated to the University of Delhi. (Details on www.aiwefa.org).

AIWEFA has Special Consultative Status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) of the United Nations and in 2003 has accepted the role of Regional Coordinator of the United Nation's Informal Regional Network of NGOs (UN NGO IRENE).

In 2003 AIWEFA instituted the Annual AIWEFA Nina Sibal Memorial Award to honour an organization working for children with special needs while employing innovative assistive technologies. The Award for 2017 is due. The Award carries a Citation and a grant of Rs. 7.00 Lakhs for the benefit of these children.

The Chairperson of the Selection Committee is Dr. Karan Singh. The committee members are Mr. Kapil Sibal, Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan, UNESCO'S Ms. Huma Masood and AIWEFA representatives. The Award Ceremony will take place on 02 August 2017 at the Gulmohar Hall, India Habitat Centre, New Delhi, in the presence of the Committee Members.

We have identified your organization from a list of Institutions working for the welfare and special needs of exceptionally marginalized children. In this context we request you to send us the details of your organization and the work you have done in your chosen field in the format attached by June 16, 2017. (Application is also available on www.aiwefa.org). This will enable us to propose your nomination to the Selection Committee.

Your early response will be appreciated.

Thanking you,

Asha Chandra President	Sarla Manchanda Vice President	Jyotsna Kapur Secretary General
