The workshop was very successful and well received. It was well attended by 124 students of the college and about 9 college faculty and AIWEFA executives.

The event was well advertised through posters and word of mouth at the college. The NSS team, along with NCC of the college were of great help. Dr. Inderjeet Dagar, Principal, College of Vocational Studies, Dr. Shalini Singhal, Associate Professor of History and Incharge of the Women Development Cell of the college, & Dr. Vedbrat, Associate Professor of History at the college extended whole hearted support in organizing the workshop very meticulously and smoothly.

SESSION I (Technical Session):

It was conducted by Dr. Renu Malaviya, a Pedagogue & Mental health professional, Dr. Malaviya has authored and edited many books and developed many modules for teachers as well as for students. Has conducted many workshops on capacity building, special needs, and inclusive education of adolescents and youth. She is an expert on Conflict Resolution of students.

Dr. Renu Malaviya facilitated the session and elaborated on the challenges concerned in intergenerational interaction getting the students from the floor involved. The hand out given by her clearly stated that healthy relationships will never require both parties to sacrifice their goals, dreams or dignity. She highlighted the role of trust, cooperation, support, honesty and accountability as the key values that foster mutual respect in relationships. Her suggestions related to bonding through technology of mobile use, email, twitter, whatsapp and other social media options captured the interest of the students and were very well received as means of relating to members of the senior generations. For this youngsters have to take a lead to make seniors well conversent with their use. This will lead to a better understanding between the juniors and seniors and will result in a happier, healthier and safe society. The session was presented in an interesting manner having a dialogue with the participants.

SESSION II (Legal Session):

In the first technical session, the concept of generation gap, and efforts to workout on different techniques and ways to bridge the generational gap were discussed thoroughly. Taking the discussion forward, the second technical session on law was to create awareness about various laws safeguarding the interests of parents and senior citizens and to discuss more on the special legislation formulated for the same purpose i.e., ‘Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007’. Ms. Shveta Gupta, an advocate registered under Delhi Bar Association and Delhi Legal Services took the technical Session II. Ms Gupta is working for a society working for legal awareness amongst school and college students at national level and has conducted many workshops for them.

The session began with a discussion on history of Indian culture of respecting the elders and ‘need to worry’ situation of parents, grand parents and senior citizens at present in India. Ms. Gupta explained how the number of older persons is rising with the increase in life expectancy rate and how the level of elderly abuse and violence is expected to rise with the same. Students agreed that the news of violence, abuse and crime against parents and senior citizens is increasing day by day in the city. Students were explained about the different types of Violence and Abuse which are being committed upon parents and senior citizens. The resource delivered a Power Point Presentation, on laws and discussed following laws safeguarding the rights of senior citizens and parents:

- Provisions of Constitution – Article 38, 41 and 47
- Legislations – Personal Laws
  - Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956
  - Muslim Personal Laws
  - Christian and Parsi Laws
- Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 – Section 125 (Maintenance for Parents)
- The Maintenance and Welfare of Parents Act, 2007
  - Meaning of Parent and Senior Citizen
  - Rights of Maintenance and Other Reliefs – Legal obligation on Children
  - Procedure to apply for the relief
  - Punishments for infringement of law
• Other Government Policies on Health, Travel, Banking, Housing, Insurance, Reverse Mortgage and Others

Ms. Gupta also highlighted a comparison of Indian laws and policies with the laws of United States, British, Canada, China, and South Africa protecting rights of Senior citizens and parents.

Session III : Evolving Strategies:

The session III on Evolving Strategies was conducted by Dr. Usha Sharma, a Physical & Mental Fitness Expert.

It was an interactive session, interposed with power point presentations and videos. It was felt that all the three generations need each other and efforts need to be made from all to bend and mend the attitudes for a better understanding amongst themselves. The young generation has to play the most important role and make the maximum efforts to maintain the cordial relationships as they are the most flexible. The youth is still in the process of moulding their personalities and need to learn to give respect to all the elderly people, inculcate a patient hearing habit to the elderly’s slow and rigid ways, Youth must learn to take advantage from rich experiences of the senior generations and need not ever consider them useless. Young generation should understand the time, financial and energy-efficient limitations under which their parents have to discharge their duties towards their wards as well as seniors. It is here that the youth has to play a very vital role to see that in the society seniors are respected, well looked after physically, financially and emotionally. They are not deprived of any of their rights, legal or otherwise, should be able to spend their old age gracefully with dignity. The youth has to learn well the value and strength of being together (unity in diversity) and act as volunteers and watchdogs to safeguard the interests and legal rights of all generations. Thus contribute towards a peaceful, happy and harmonious society.

This was followed by a question-answer session and a feedback form was given to be filled. Finally pledge – taking to “Promote Intergenerational Bonding” was administered, as follows:

On this day ie. 2nd February 2018 we pledge that we will respect our parents, grandparents, teachers and all Senior Citizens and help them in all situations. We will listen to them patiently and benefit from their experiences. We will peacefully make them understand our viewpoint, make them conversant with latest digital techniques for better communication leading towards a loving, harmonious and healthy society.

The whole workshop was a great success. The student volunteers Ms. Sandeep Kaur & Mr. Aeshal were of great help. A vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Shalini Singhal. Refreshments were served to all the participants. The e-certificates of participation & appreciation were also issued later on. Information about the workshop-background-note, About AIWEFA, Programme-Schedule and resource – material received from Dr. Renu Malaviya were distributed to all the participants before the start of the workshop. The information about the workshop (copies of the banner) and posters on the topic were displayed all over the college. Expenditure statement is given separately.
